

ART MOVES

Performer/Artist Application

The Arts Council of OKC seeks artists of all kinds for its new daily program, ART MOVES. Performances and art demonstrations will take place during the lunch hour, Monday through Friday, at various locations in the downtown OKC area. ART MOVES is part performance, part arts education. The educational component may consist of a simple Q & A, a lecture, or an interactive demonstration. Proposals and ideas will be accepted. An honorarium will be provided to the artist or group. This modest stipend covers artist fee, demonstration materials (to be provided by the artist or group), and parking.

WHAT: Daily performances, art demonstrations, and art-related talks in the downtown OKC area.

WHO: Visual artists, dancers, musicians, poets/storytellers, comedians/improv groups, performance artists, filmmakers, curators, etc.

WHEN: Lunchtime, Monday- Friday, 12:00 noon – 1:00 pm

WHERE: Various venues and spaces throughout the downtown OKC area – including the newly renovated Myriad Gardens, the OKC Museum of Art, the downtown Metropolitan Library, and Leadership Square.

WHY: To connect OKC with ART, daily! To provide a platform for our member agencies and OKC artists, while also providing arts entertainment and education to the downtown lunch crowd.

HOW: Submit the application below, along with a résumé of previous performances or similar projects, and a disc of related media (or email a link) to:
